

S A P D N

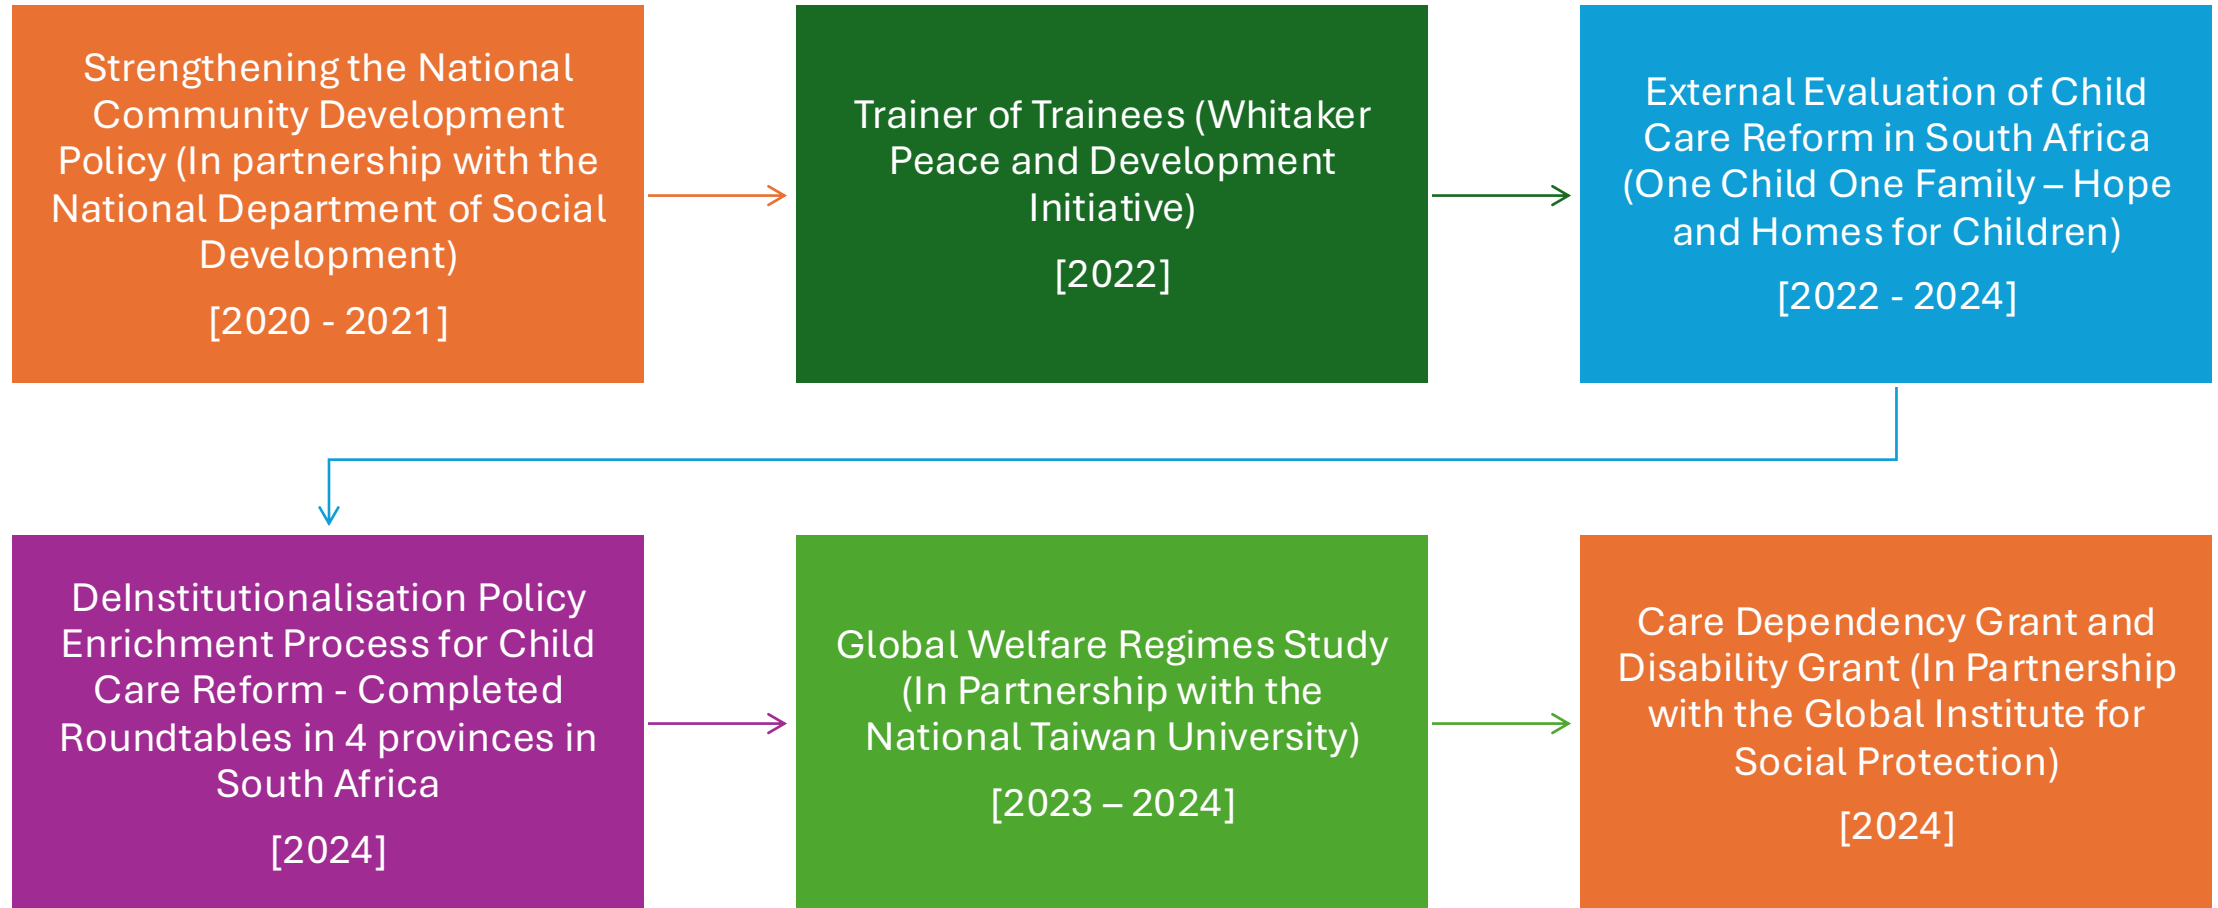

SOUTHERN AFRICAN POLICY
AND DEVELOPMENT NEXUS

SAPDN Achievements 2021- 2024

SAPDN Strategic Meeting

28 November 2024

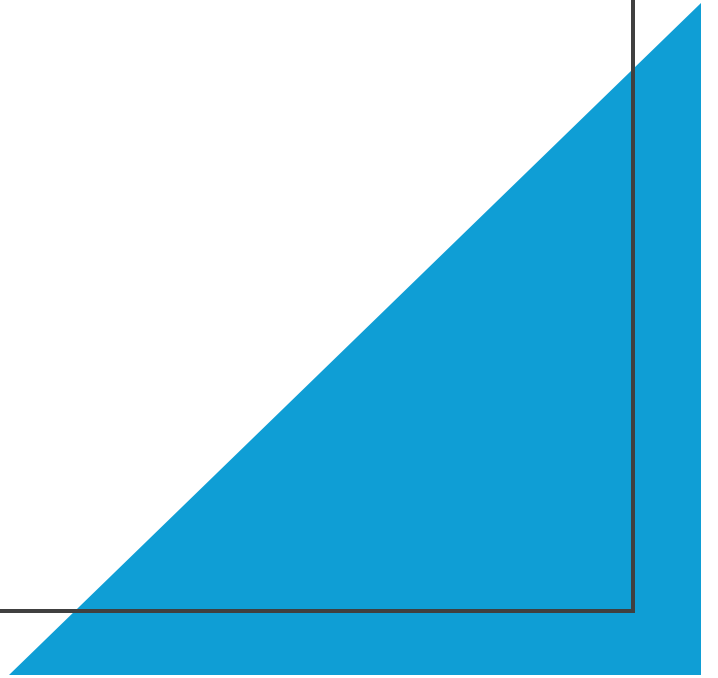

Completed Projects

Completed Teaching Assignments

Prof Noyoo completed teaching assignments in:

- Wiesbaden in April 2024
- Erfurt in November 2024
- National Taiwan University in March 2024
- SAPDN Webinar Series - October 2024 (Presentations delivered by Dr Chagunda and Prof Sobantu)

Partnerships

2021-2023

- Established new partnerships with the National Department of Social Development South Africa
- Established new partnerships with One Child, One Family Hope, and Homes for Children South Africa
- Established new partnerships with Farafina Institute – Bamberg, Germany
- Established new partnerships with the Whitaker Peace and Development Initiative

social development

Department:
Social Development
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

WHITAKER
PEACE & DEVELOPMENT
INITIATIVE

ONE CHILD
ONE FAMILY

HOPE AND HOMES
FOR CHILDREN
SOUTH AFRICA

Partnerships Cont...

2024

- Established new partnerships with CoLABOR – Lisbon, Portugal
- Established Partnership with the National Taiwan University, Department Of Social Work
- Established Partnerships with RheinMain University
- Established Partnerships with the University of the Free State

International Conferences and Workshops

SAPDN Publications

- International Social Work: A Vehicle for Global Development. [Publisher: Beltz Juventa] [Prof Noyoo is the author]
- Exploring the Situation of the Family in South Africa During the Coronavirus (COVID-19) Pandemic [Publisher: Springer] [Prof Noyoo and Ms Matela co-authored]
- Online Higher Education in South Africa During COVID-19 and Beyond: Opportunities, Challenges, and Its Future [Publisher: Springer] [Prof Noyoo, Prof Sobantu, Dr Chagunda and Ms Matela co-authored]
- Leveraging public-private Partnerships for Positive Public Administration in South Africa [Publisher: Edward Elgar] [Ms Matela and Prof Noyoo co-authored]

Forthcoming Publications

Examining the Colonial and Apartheid Socio-Economic Intersectionalities During Covid-19 in South Africa: Implications for Social Policy and Social Justice. [Ms Matela and Prof Noyoo co-authored]

[Prof Noyoo] Incorporating Indigenous Social Security Systems into Post-Colonial Social Policy Formulation in Africa. Sozialer Fortschritt, 73(11), 793 – 807 Incorporating Indigenous Social Security Systems into Post-Colonial Social Policy Formulation in Africa. Sozialer Fortschritt, 73(11), 793 – 807

Decolonizing Development Planning: An Exploration of Indigenisation in South Africa. [Publisher: Oxford University Press] [Author Ms. Minenhle Matela]

Prof Noyoo is an editor of The Oxford Handbook of Global Indigenous Studies and The Protest Culture In South Africa: What Role for the Social Sciences?

The Protest Culture In South Africa: What Role for the Social Sciences? [Ms Matela and Dr Chagunda contributed individual chapters]

Social Work and Youth Development in Africa: Dividends for Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). [Prof Noyoo, Prof Sobantu, Ms Matela and Dr Chagunda co-authored]

Social Development in South Africa in Pursuit of a Developmental State [Prof Noyoo] Book to be published by Springer.

Elgars Insight on Social Policy in Zambia and South Africa (2025) The insights will be published in an Elgar Research Encyclopedia of Social Policy book (to be published by E. Elgar) and edited by Professor Christian Aspalter. Prof Noyoo is co-editing the Africa section. His insights are the following:

- 1. South Africa: Its Social Policy and Its Untackled Social Problems
- 2. Zambia: Its Social Policy and Its Untackled Social Problems
- Also Dr. Chagunda is writing an Insight on Malawi in the same book.

SAPDN OP-Ed

- SAPDN OP-Ed launch
- SAPDN Publishing - First book - Surviving A University Department from Hell: An Exposé of the University of Cape Town (UCT)

OPINION